[Mr. A. S. Damodaran Asan]

(c) whether a list of these persons in the order of their claims is maintained and, if so, whether the list will be laid on the table?

MR. R. M. STATHAM (Director of Public Instruction): (a) The *statement required is laid on the table.

(b) Date of first appointment.

(c) Yes; the statement referred to in part (a) was drawn up in the order of seniority.

MR. A. S. DAMODARAN ASAN (Mavelikara): Sir, I rise to a point of order. When it is stated that the statement required is laid on the table, does it not mean that it will be laid on the table of the members? We are unable to find any list here.

PRESIDENT: The Parliamentary procedure always is that, if any member asks for any information, that information is supplied in the form of a statement laid on the table of the House. The table of the House invariably is regarded as the table of the Secretary and that statement is laid on the table of the Secretary, and if any questions are to be asked, the member has got to wait until the publication appears and then he can ask questions. But he cannot ask questions immediately.

MR. A. S. DAMODARAN ASAN (Mavelikara): In this connection part (a) of my question does not require a statement to be laid on the table. I have asked for the names of persons who have acted as Drawing Mistresses. Then my submission is that the answer given is not correct.

MR. R. M. STATHAM (Director of Public Instruction): The answer consisted of considerable details and the most convenient way to answer them was to put them in the form of a statement.

MR. A. S. DAMODARAN ASAN (Mavelikara): May I know whether it is the decision of the Chair or the opinion of the member?

PRESIDENT: That is the opinion of the member.

However, I shall look into that; and if it does not comply with the Parliamentary procedure, I will insist upon a better method of answering in future.

MR. V. RAMAKRISHNA PANICKAR (Kartikapalli II): May I know whether there are Drawing Masters in Girls' Schools?

MR. R. M. STATHAM (Director of Public Instruction): I think that we have passed on to the next question.

PRESIDENT: I have not called for the next question.

MR. K. R. ELENKATH (Kalkulam I): Sir, I rise to a point of order. I want to know whether a member is entitled to ask supplementary questions when the answer given is "the statement required is laid on the table."

PRESIDENT: I have already answered in the negative.
